Walk Two Moons (1996) About book: That night I kept thinking about Pandora's box. I wondered why someone would put a good thing such as Hope in a box with sickness and kidnapping and murder. It was fortunate that it was there, though. If not, people would have the birds of sadness nesting in their hair all the time, because of nuclear wars and the greenhouse effect and bombs and stabbings and

Walk Two Moons - scribd.com

Walk Two Moons is not only a story about a young Native American girl, but it is a story about loss and coping with unanswered questions. This story is multilayered. It touches on grief, culture, social class, and what it takes to move on from tragedy. It is also a story about the roles of women and how a woman might not always be happy in the home. It is well-written, funny, and tragic all at
